Ice Breaker: an event or activity designed to break the ice among guests, facilitating interaction and creating a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. In the context of weddings or gatherings, it's typically an informal dinner or meet-and-greet held before the main event, where family and friends from both sides get to know each other and start bonding.

Next-day celebration in true Mexican style (Tornaboda), is a traditional Mexican celebration usually held after the wedding. It's an informal and lively party where family and friends continue the celebration with music, dancing, and traditional food.

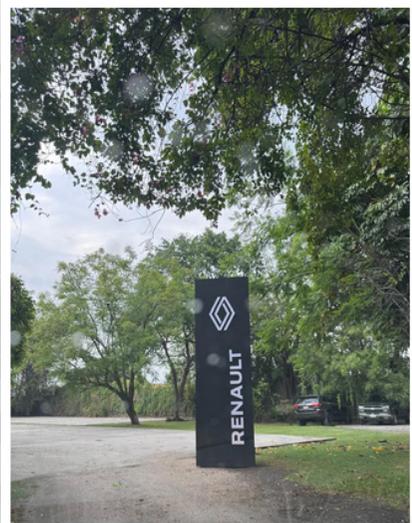

We offer a variety of menus and options, all featuring authentic Mexican cuisine. Pricing depends on the menu selection chosen from our diverse Mexican menu options.
